

STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP SCHEME

Darjeeling Government College since its inception in the year 1948 has been a beacon of higher learning in the Darjeeling Hill areas catering to the needs of fulfilling the aspiration of the people. It has been a centre of excellence in thrust areas of the teaching and research to expand academic co-operation by offering new specialisation. Darjeeling Government College has upheld the principle to support and sustain the vision of founder members who paved the path of progress for socially and backward section of the society and also for women by liberating their shackled existence and by illuminating their future with the help of higher education. The students are encouraged to enrol from among weaker sections, even beyond the reservation limit.

Darjeeling Government College has tried to incorporate and facilitate student scholarship program as prescribed by the State and Central government for student welfare. To realise the Government schemes, Darjeeling Government College has formulated Student scholarship and financial support committee to look into criteria for availing student scholarship program.

Following are the Government scholarship schemes looked after by Student Scholarship and Financial Support Committee.
